3. VENDORS ALLOWED AT THE MARKET

- 3.1. The Warrenton Farmer's Market is a Virginia Grown Market which means produce and fruits sold must be grown at farms located within the Commonwealth of Virginia. As the Warrenton Farmer's Market history is based on the local agricultural base, emphasizes is first placed on the selling of local products produced by the registered vendor, but the Market's Board Members understand that certain fruits and vegetables are unavailable in northern Virginia during certain parts of the growth season. Therefore the Board has opened the Market to the selling of fruit and vegetables from other Virginia farmers as a supplement only. This supplement shall be defined as 20% of the vendor's weekly goods. The Board reserves the right to reverse this decision if it deems this decision to have a contrary affect on the local market. With this in mind, the Board and Market Manager will strictly enforce the rule that 100% of all produce sold at the Market must be Virginia Grown by local or regional farmers. The sale of commercial products is strictly prohibited. Enforcement requires local buying receipts that must be presented to the head vendor prior to be the resell of produce or fruit produced by another farm in Virginia. Receipts shall be available for review by the head vendor.

- 3.2. Goods homemade by the vendors or their households will continue to qualify for sale at the market. A vendor found selling produce commercial in nature or items that he/she did not produce will invalidate their right to sell at the Market and will be expelled.
- 3.3. Goods not to be sold at the market include:
  - 3.3.1. Any product not produced by a vendor or his/her household or produce not grown or produced in Virginia.
  - 3.3.2. Produce or products purchased from a retail grocery store or its equivalent.
  - 3.3.3. Commercially manufactured products.
  - 3.3.4. Non-profit fund raising sales, unless written permission is granted in advance by the Market Manager.
  - 3.3.5. Flee Market or second hand items, antiques or commercial machined goods.
- 3.4. All vendors' properties are subject to inspection by the Market Manager and/or a designee in order to assure that the above requirements are met. No less than 48 hours advance notice will be given to the vendor. Refusal of inspection will invalidate the vendor's right to sell at the Market.
- 3.5. Crafts are incidental to the purpose of the market, which is primarily an agricultural operation. Not more than 20% of the gross proceeds of any vendor can be gained from marketing of crafts at the market. Vendors or members of the Vendors' households must produce all the craft items sold at the market.

- 3.6. In addition, the Market Manager shall have the discretion to fill any vacant spaces with those vendors who produce only craft products. Such assignments shall only be allowed after spaces have been filled with those vendors producing agriculture products. This number shall not exceed more than 10% of the total number of market vendors.
- 3.7. The following crafts are generally permitted at the market: wood carving, weaving, pottery, dollies, afghan, quilts, wreaths, baskets, candles and wood planters. Other items may be allowed at the discretion of the Market Manager.

4. VENDOR SPACES

- 4.1 Reserved vendor spaces are available for seasonal vendors. Returning seasonal vendors wishing to retain their previous year's space(s) must attend the annual meeting, must have occupied said space(s) a minimum of twenty (20) times during the previous season and must have followed the Warrenton Farmers Market operating guidelines during the previous season.
- 4.2 Unreserved vendor spaces are available on a limited, first-come-first served basis for part-time vendors.
- 4.3 Spaces assigned to vendors are for the use of the vendors and their immediate households only. Sharing of vendor spaces during a season is permitted only at the discretion of the Market Manager. No vendor may rent more than two (2) spaces in the market.
- 4.4 The Market Manager will collect seasonal vendor fees. Part-time vendor fees will be collected by the Head Vendor at the beginning of each market day. Saturday Market Vendor fees for the 2015 season are $100.00 per space for seasonal vendors and $10.00 per space/per sale day for part-time vendors with a maximum fee of $100.00 per space. Wednesday Market Vendor fees for the 2015 season are $50.00 per seasonal vendors and $5.00 per sale day for part-time vendors with a maximum of $50.00 per season.
